BEAUCHAMP STOLE TWO HORSE RACES.

He Won With J. Sidney Walker and A. D. Gibson When Both Seemed Beaten.

FOUND FIRST IN A GALLOP.

Huffman's Mare Improved in Hurry and Romped Home With Feature Race of the Day.

Jockey Beauchamp, who has been variously called Bowcamp, Beycamp and Bow-sam and who pronounces his own name Beecham-laid violent and "burglarious" hands upon two horse races that did not belong to him yesterday.

He won the second race with J. Sidney

Walker by sneaking up on the rail while Flying Girl, Lady Gallantry and Seize were swinging wide on the outside. He took the fifth race in the same way with A. D. Gib-

Galiantrie, Ogle and a few others had Gibson beaten to death. He was slow to begin and was not in his stride at any time, even if he did the the track record for the distance. No matter how fast he was he had no business winning from last place in a field of seven, when they turned into the stretch. But Walsh took Ogle to the outside and Gallantrie went with him Beauchamp took the good going, the short way and won. With good boys in front of him he could not have won, unless A. D. Gibson had wings to carry him over the heads of the field, which should have been bunched in front of him.

The chief feature about the Fair Grounds races is the incapability of the boys riding there. They were bad enough last year, but their worst last year was nothing to what they are this. Beauchamp is a fair enough boy of the sit-up, loose-reined, straight-backed, let-go-his-head-at-the-finish boy, but he by no means ranks with Dale on that boy's form of last year.

O'Neill, who was a fair light weight last season, is completely gone to the bad. Walsh is a fair post and in-front rider, but the worst in the world to come through a field. Domininck still can get them off, but he is lig as a house and has lost his keenness and ambition. The others—oh, well let us not speak of them.

They steamed old Joe Doughty up vesterday, clapped a hood on him, threw Dominick on his back and gave him their blessing. He had neither steam, hood Dominick not blessing when last out and he ran last. Whether it was the glorious heat of his body, the grateful shade of the bilinkers, the blessing or Dominick's hunching that did it, he ran first in a field where he was last previous out. He made all the pace and won a block by a whole bunch of houses.

Lady Gallantry, Seize and Flyin Girl all were running away with the second race. Gibson beaten to death. He was slow to begin and was not in his stride at any time, last previous out. He made all the pace and won a block by a whole bunch of houses.

Lady Gallantry, Seize and Flyin Girl all were running awny with the second race, but the boys took them all wide on the turn and J. Sidney Walker "snuck up" on the rail, got the money and gave them the laugh. Flying Girl was about forty pounds the best of the lot.

Colonial Girl was awfully good in the third race and romped home. Nearest was cut off and interfered with but could not have been better than second.

Found at $ to 1 walked away with the fourth race. She stopped at half a mile the other day, but Mr. Huffman can get them ready in a hurry. They expected her to come back yesterday, but she never returned. Gienwood at 4 to 1 a place got second and All Saints, the favorite, was third. There was nothing stirring on Eloim in this race. Some other time there may be something occuring here.

You heard now lucky Mr. A. D. Gibson was to win his race. He had to take the soft dirt in the track center in the first quarter. That anchored him. He fell back behind his field. Luckily the boys in front could not hold their horses close to the fence and Beauchamp swinging in with Gibson got that fine old hard path, came like all possessed and won a nice race. A quarter mile out he apparently did not have a chance.

Things break well sometimes for some ter mile out he apparently did not have a chance.

Things break well sometimes for some people. Kigne looked like it in the last race. Her garty backed ber at 8 to 5. They played Little Tim at from 15 to 7. Kisme got in a jam at the first turn and sulked for a half, long enough to get her out of it. Little Tim got well away, came on in the stretch and won by half a length from Kisme, who closed a lot of ground in the stretch. Mr. Power's old mare was some 'steen' pounds the best, but she will not run kindly in a crowding field. Little Tim was second best at that, was well ridden and ran a good race. Quite a lot of money was bet on him.

NASTURTIUM TO BE SHIPPED BACK. Whitney Fenrs His Thoroughbred Never Will Be Able to Race Again. New York, May 8 .- W. H. Whitney's English Derby candidate, Nasturtium, will, it is reported, be shipped back to the United States on the steamer Minneapolis. Great hopes had been held for the winning of the classic event by an American-bred animal, but soon after Nasturtium's arrival in England, several months ago, he developed lung trouble. Mr. Whitney is said to hold small expectations of ever racing him again, Athletes from the University of California will meet the Yale track and field men in a dual meet at New Haven to-morrow afternoon. The Berkely squad reached the East yesterday after a trip from the Pacific Coast. Immediately upon arrival the California men visited Yale field and limbered up after their lengthy trip. Plaw, the crack hammer thrower of the visiting team, threw lif feet in his practice.

From all indications, this should win the event to-morrow, as Beck, the Yale champion, had never before thrown more than 125 feet. Plaw evidently did not believe him particularly dangerous, as he coached him on one or two points, with the result that Beck made at throw of 145 feet before leaving the field. Managors Gould of Yale and Dacota of California have decided that as many men from cach team as desire can compete in each event. The California athletes at first held out for each event being confined to one men from each team, but the Yale manager overrode this on the ground that he wished to give his men all the practice possible for the Yale-Harvard dual games.

Beall, '86, arrived yesterday to coach the Yale nine, according to dispatches and shook it up on account of its unsatisfactory work against Pennsylvania Saturday. Miller was taken from short and his place given to Cote, who was moved in from left field. Metcalf was given DeSauller's place at second base.

High School and the Manual Training School nines will meet to morrow afternoon at the Christian Brothers campus in an in-terscholastic ball game.

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION.

Only Two Races offer Attractions to Would-Be Speculators To-Day.

Three preity bookmakers' races—odds 13 to 1 against anything in the race—will greet race goers at the Fair Grounds to-day. The three first races may therefore be passed up with the remark that any man who plays them—no matter how much the best the horse he likes may be—is insane.

It is all in the break. The third race seems to hold out Sinfi and Ziri as best, but here, as eisewhere, the start will decide it. And who is going to bet on the steeple-chase? No one. So that leaves us two betting races to discuss.

On her race yesterday Found is "in" to-day. How can she lose? This is the place to bet the bank roll at any old price. It is just like putting it down and picking it up. Apparently it is the road to wealth.

The next is a tough enough race, but Miss Mae Day and Ampere should do some business. Mae Day is said to be good and fresh. Ampere is fast but Abe Cahn said yesterday that he feared that running him distances at Memphis had somewhat duiled his speed. The race seems to lie between the pair and Mae Day should win.

That is all there is to the Fair Grounds card to-day. Found at any price, Mae Day at 2% and let the rast run for the ring. Playing a horse in a field of fourteen at from four to six furlongs is like diving in a grab bag at a school festival.

Tommy Ryan Knocked Out.

Chicago, Ill., May s.—After three and one-half rounds of hard fighting here to-night Otto Sieloff, a Chicago lightweight knocked out Philadelphit. Tommy Ryan in the first two rounds. Ryan had the best of the bout so far as points were concerned, but Sieloff kept hard at work and finally landed a right swing to the jaw that finished Ryan.

was rewarded yesterday afternoon at League Park in a rousing heart-disease Captain Roy Thomas had figured a second Cardinal scalp as a sure thing, but victory was wrested from the Quakers in just about ten seconds of a very exciting ninth inning. The score was 2 to 1. The tabasco finish came after eight in-nings of errorless ball. It was the most even proposition that has bobbed up at League Park this spring. Both sides were shut out in all but one inning. Never was there a more timely eleventh-hour rally. Nearly a thousand of the faithful who wit-nessed the came felt more than remaid by nessed the game felt more than repaid by that one-half inning. Now that the Car-dinals have demonstrated that they can play the role of Mr. Pinch in a right place, their stock is on the boom, Incidentally, win under such circumstances will brighten the ambition of the youngsters, who were rapidly becoming dulled under the pressure of steady defeat.

Barciay Starts a Raily.

There will be few finishes in St. Louis this rummer that will exceed that spectacular inning. Aside from this, the game was well pitched, and the absence of errors was refreshing. When George Barclay walked up to the plate with his wagun tongue in the minth, the odds were about 100 to I against the tribe of Donovan, once before-in the seventh inning—the Donovanites had a good chance, but there was no one able to meet the emergency, and but little mope was entertained in the ninth.

Barclay swing his willow, and while Roy Thomas was chasing his single he covered the distance to first. Then the fans woke up and polished their rusty supply of hope. Kruzer did the right thing by sacrificing. Bill Douglass captured his bunt and fell down, but managed to throw "Oom Pant" out at first, but his demise placed "Deerfoot" on second. "Germany" Hartman wiped away whatever stain might have besinirched his record of Wednesday by sigmming the leather out to left field for the two-tase hit that won the game. Barelay Starts a Rally.

How the Tables Were Turned.

How the Tables Were Turned.

Browne made an excellent try, but barely succeeded in touching the ball, and it rolled away from him. The Quakers tried to convince Joe Cantillion that the hit was a foul, but that worthy was watching the descent of the leather from the home plate, and overruled their objections. Barciay got to third on the drive. Bediam broke loose in the stands about this time, and it seemed to have the destred effect on the Quakers.

When Roy Brashear came up the fans prayed earnestly for any old kind of a hit. The Philadelphia infield was playing close up and Brashear played his part well by a soak down toward short.

Neither Duggleby or Hulswitt could glue their digits to the ball, and a mighty roar went up as Barciay crossed the pan, but it was nothing to the outburst that followed when Hartman registered at the plate with the winning run a few seconds later. The ball had rolled over to the left and back of second base. Hulswitt and Duggleby showed their disgust plainly. The Donovan tarrying just long enough to aggravate the sting of defeat by a few ironical remarks to the disgrantled Quakers.

but one pass and each striking out a man.
Both were supported aimost faultlessly and thus for the first eight innings the game was extremely close.

The Quakers broke the ice and registered their ione run in the fourth inning. Browne

Two measiy hits, and both those by a pitcher and a supposedly weak hitting one at that, It is needless to say that with only two hits and nearly faultiess fielding by the Browns, the Tigers were shut out, the Browns getting five runs by some good hitting and welra fielding on the part of the Tigers.

innings, the Tigers never had a ghost of a show to score. Good First Inning. Good First Inning.

The first inning was a nightmare for Detroit fans. Eurkett straightened one out to the fence for three bags. Heldrick hit an easy one to Dillon, who fumbled it and then threw to McGuire to catch Eurkett at the plate. McGuire, however, missed the throw, Heidrick getting second on the play. Anderson, Wallace and Padden then hit in succession, With two out, another hit by Sugden brought in three runs, and the Sugden brought in three runs, and the bases were fully populated when Powell flew to McGuire. It might have been worse, but that was bad enough for a starter.

After that until the seventh the Tigers held the Browns safe.

inconvenient and tiresome mode of locomotion - there is no more pathetic sight than a person slowly and painfully moving along the street supported by these artificial limbs. When Rheumatism settles in the bones and muscles of the legs, it is safe to predict that the victim will eventually become helples and crutch-bound. The corrosive irritating matter that is deposited in the joints and muscles causes the most intense pain, the knees and ankles swell, and when the natural oils and fluids that lubricate these parts are completely destroyed the joints become locked and the muscles drawn and stiff, and crutches a necessity. The acid poisons that produce rheumatic pains form in the blood, and are distributed through the system, and lodged in the arms, shoulders, hands, back and feet, or other parts of the body-resulting often in total dis-
